9. Participation or Interest in Client Transactions.

Applicant or a related person: (check those that apply)

- A. As principal, buys securities for itself from or sells securities it owns to any client.
- B. As broker or agent effects securities transactions for compensation for any client.
- C. As broker or agent for any person other than a client effects transactions in which client securities are sold to or bought from a brokerage customer.
- D. Recommends to clients that they buy or sell securities or investment products in which the applicant or a related person has some financial interest.
- E. Buys or sells for itself securities that it also recommends to clients.

(For each box checked, describe on Schedule F when the applicant or a related person engages in these transactions and what restrictions, internal procedures, or disclosures are used for conflicts of interest in those transactions.)

10. Conditions for Managing Accounts. Does the applicant provide investment supervisory services, manage investment advisory accounts or hold itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services and impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account?

Yes No

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Review of accounts for financial planning and asset allocation/portfolio monitoring clients will be held no less than quarterly and may be more often depending on the complexity of the account and the nature of the client needs. Clients may request more frequent reviews and may set thresholds for triggering events that would cause a review to take place. Generally, Advisory Representatives will monitor for changes or shifts in the economy, changes to the management and structure of a mutual fund or company in which client assets are invested, and market shifts and corrections. Clients are advised that they should notify their Advisory Representative promptly of any changes to the client's financial goals, objectives or financial situation as such changes may require Advisory Representative to review the clients portfolio and make recommendations for changes.

B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Clients will be provided with account statements reflecting the transactions occurring in the client's account at least on a quarterly basis. Client will be provided with confirmations for each securities transaction executed in the client's account. Further, depending on the services requested by client, supplemental reports may be provided by the Applicant or by a third party custodian. These reports are reviewed on a regular basis, but no less than quarterly.
